NATIONAL ARCHIVES AND RECORD ADMINISTRATION
FREEDMEN'S BUREAU PRESERVATION PROJECT

This National Archives microfilm publication is part of a multiyear project to microfilm the field office records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (Freedmen's Bureau). The project was made possible by the United States Congress through The Freedmen's Bureau Records Preservation Act of 2000 (Public Law 106-444). When completed, all of the field records for the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, and for the District of Columbia will be available on microfilm. For microfilm availability and description, consult the current edition of the National Archives publication Microfilm Resources for Research: A Comprehensive Catalog. You can also view the National Archives microfilm locator on our web site at www.archives.gov.

INTRODUCTION

On the 90 rolls of this microfilm publication, M1903, are reproduced the previously unfilmed records of the Georgia staff offices and subordinate field offices of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1872. These records consist of bound volumes and unbound records, containing materials that include letters and endorsements sent and received, monthly reports, registers of patients, orders and circulars issued and received, and other records relating to freedmen's complaints and contracts. These records are part of the Records of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, Record Group (RG) 105.

This film series completes the reproduction of all Bureau records created in Georgia between 1865 and 1872. Many of these records were reproduced in 1969 in National Archives Microfilm Publications M798, Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1869, and M799, Records of the Superintendent of Education for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1870.

HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, also known as the Freedmen's Bureau, was established in the War Department by an act of Congress on March 3, 1865 (13 Stat. 507). The life of the Bureau was extended twice by acts of July 16, 1866 (14 Stat. 173), and July 6, 1868 (15 Stat. 83). The Bureau was responsible for the supervision and management of all matters relating to refugees and freedmen, and of lands abandoned or seized during the Civil War. In May 1865, President Andrew Johnson appointed Maj. Gen. Oliver Otis Howard as Commissioner of the Bureau, and Howard served in that position until June 30, 1872, when activities of the Bureau were terminated in accordance with an act of June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366). While a major part of the Bureau's early activities involved the supervision of abandoned and confiscated property, its mission was to provide relief and help freedmen become self-sufficient. Bureau officials issued rations and clothing, operated hospitals and refugee camps, and supervised labor contracts. In addition, the Bureau managed apprenticeship disputes and complaints, assisted benevolent societies in the establishment of schools, helped freedmen in legalizing marriages entered into during slavery, and provided transportation to refugees and freedmen who were attempting to reunite with their families or relocate to other parts of the country. The Bureau also helped black soldiers, sailors, and their heirs collect bounty claims, pensions, and back pay.

The act of March 3, 1865, authorized the appointment of Assistant Commissioners to aid the Commissioner in supervising the work of the Bureau in the former Confederate states, the border states, and the District of Columbia. While the work performed by Assistant Commissioners in each state was similar, the organizational structure of staff officers varied from state to state. At various times, the staff could consist of a superintendent of education, an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a disbursing officer, a chief medical officer, a chief quartermaster, and a commissary of subsistence. Subordinate to these officers were the assistant superintendents, or subassistant commissioners as they later became known, who commanded the subdistricts.

The Assistant Commissioner corresponded extensively with both his superior in the Washington Bureau headquarters and his subordinate officers in the subdistricts. He prepared reports that he sent to the Commissioner concerning Bureau activities in areas under his jurisdiction, based upon reports submitted to him by the subassistant commissioners and other subordinate staff officers. He also received letters from freedmen, local white citizens, state officials, and other non-Bureau personnel. These letters varied in nature from complaints to applications for jobs in the Bureau. Because the assistant adjutant general handled much of the mail for the Assistant Commissioner's office, letters were often addressed to him instead of to the Assistant Commissioner.

In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard in July 1865, the Assistant Commissioners were instructed to designate one officer in each state to serve as "general Superintendents of Schools." These officials were to "take cognizance of all that is being done to educate refugees and freedmen, secure proper protection to schools and teachers, promote method and efficiency, correspond with the benevolent agencies which are supplying his field, and aid the Assistant Commissioner in making his required reports." In October 1865, a degree of centralized control was established over Bureau educational activities in the states when Rev. John W. Alvord was appointed Inspector of Finances and Schools. In January 1867, Alvord was divested of his financial responsibilities, and he was appointed General Superintendent of Education.

An act of Congress, approved July 25, 1868 (15 Stat. 193), ordered that the Commissioner of the Bureau "shall, on the first day of January next, cause the said bureau to be withdrawn from the several States within which said bureau has acted and its operation shall be discontinued." Consequently, in early 1869, with the exception of the superintendents of education and the claims agents, the Assistant Commissioners and their subordinate officers were withdrawn from the states.

For the next year and a half the Bureau continued to pursue its education work and to process claims. In the summer of 1870, the superintendents of education were withdrawn from the states, and the headquarters staff was greatly reduced. From that time until the Bureau was abolished by an act of Congress approved June 10, 1872 (17 Stat. 366), effective June 30, 1872, the Bureau's functions related almost exclusively to the disposition of claims. The Bureau's records and remaining functions were then transferred to the Freedmen's Branch in the office of the Adjutant General. The records of this branch are among the Bureau's files.

Constrained by limited resources, Southern opposition, and the politics of Reconstruction, the Bureau faced an enormous challenge in its efforts to assist the freedmen and refugees. Its relief efforts, without question, saved thousands of southerners from starvation. Its attempts to assist freedmen to become self-sufficient, to provide public education, administer justice, and, to a lesser degree, to provide land, all worked with varying degrees of success to lessen the difficulties during the transition from slavery to freedom. One of the Bureau's greatest legacies is the body of records it created and received during the course of its operations. These records are arguably some of the most important documents available for the study of the Federal Government's policies, efforts to reconstruct the South, and Southern social history and genealogy.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU IN GEORGIA

Organization

Bvt. Maj. Gen. Rufus Saxton, who had directed the "Port Royal Experiment," was appointed Assistant Commissioner for South Carolina, Georgia, and Florida. Saxton established his headquarters at Beaufort, SC, in June 1865, and assigned Gen. Edward A. Wild the responsibility for Bureau affairs in part of Georgia. In September 1865, after Wild was relieved from duty, the office of Assistant Commissioner for Georgia was established, and Brig. Gen. Davis Tillson was appointed as Acting Assistant Commissioner, with exclusive control of all matters concerning the Bureau in Georgia. Tillson reported To General Saxton in South Carolina until December 1865, when he was ordered to report thereafter directly to Commissioner Howard at Washington. Generally, the records pertaining to Georgia and Florida that were created during this early period are included among those of the Assistant Commissioner of South Carolina.

The organization of the Bureau in Georgia was similar to that of the Bureau headquarters in Washington. The Assistant Commissioner's staff included an assistant adjutant general, an assistant inspector general, a chief quartermaster and disbursing officer, and a superintendent of education. Three officers served as Assistant Commissioner in Georgia between 1865 and 1869 and located the Bureau offices in four different cities during that period. General Tillson first established his headquarters at Augusta in September 1865 but moved it to Savannah in October 1866. Col. Caleb C. Sibley succeeded Tillson as Assistant Commissioner in January 1867, and 2 months later he moved the headquarters from Savannah to Macon. It remained there until July 1867, when the office was transferred to Atlanta. In October 1868, Maj. John R. Lewis replaced Sibley as Assistant Commissioner. Lewis served until the office was discontinued in May 1869. From January to May 1869, Major Lewis combined the duties of Assistant Commissioner, with those of superintendent of education. After the office of the Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, Lewis continued to serve as superintendent of education until May 1870.

The major subordinate field offices for the Bureau in Georgia, for example, included those with headquarters at Albany, Americus, Athens, Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. Under the direct supervision of the subassistant commissioners were the civilian and military agents. Occasionally, the Bureau retained military officers in a civilian capacity after the termination of their military service. For a list of selected Georgia subordinate field office personnel and their dates of service, see the Appendix.

Activities

The major activities of the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia generally resembled those conducted in other states. The Bureau issued rations and provided medical relief to both freedmen and white refugees, supervised labor contracts between planters and freedmen, administered justice, and worked with benevolent societies in the establishment of schools.

When General Davis Tillson took over as Assistant Commissioner for the Freedmen's Bureau in Georgia in September 1865, many of the major cities and towns in the state were troubled with overcrowding, decease, and poverty. In the cities of Macon, Atlanta, Augusta, and Savannah, freedmen and refugees were living in some of the most crowded and deplorable conditions, and many were in dire need of food and clothing, shelter, and medical attention.[1] Convinced, however, that Federal Government relief should be temporary and solely for the needy, General Tillson issued an order on October 3, 1865, prohibiting the distribution of rations to freedmen and refugees who were able-bodied but refused work. To discourage idleness and dependency, Tillson further ordered that only those persons who were able to provide for themselves would be allowed to remain in the towns and cities. Those who desired to stay, said Tillson, "must be compelled, if necessary, to go to the country and accept places of labor found by themselves, or for them, by officers or agents of the Bureau."[2]

Tillson's orders were strictly enforced. One month after his pronouncement, rations issued in Savannah had been reduced from 120,000 to 60,000 per month. For the month of June of 1866, the number of rations issued for the entire State of Georgia totaled less than 20,000. However, in spite of the Bureau's "self-help" policy, limited resources, and the belief that local governments should play a greater role in providing relief for the destitute, the Georgia Bureau issued some 847,669 rations from June 1865 to September 1866. Although the Bureau's actions prevented wholesale starvation and untold suffering, the agency's rations-relief efforts were far less extensive than what Bureau officials had done during the same period in Alabama, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia. Tillson's successors, Assistant Commissioners Caleb C. Sibley (January 1867–October 1868) and John R. Lewis

(October 1868–May 1869) continued to follow the policy of providing limited rations relief. During their tenures, rations were issued only in emergencies and for the most part to hospitals and asylums.[3]

The Georgia Bureau's policy of temporary relief for the needy also guided its approach in providing medical care and assistance for the destitute. Like its ration program, the Bureau viewed its responsibility as one of providing temporary medical relief, primarily in cases of extreme emergencies. The Bureau believed that the ultimate responsibility for providing medical care to those in need lay with Georgia civil authorities. J. W. Lawton, who served as surgeon-in-chief under General Tillson, saw the use of dispensaries as the best means of administering medical relief and the most effective approach to encourage civil officials to take on some of the cost for operating them. Lawton and his successor at various times maintained dispensaries at Albany, Americus, Brunswick, Columbus, Darien, Newton, St. Catherine's Island, St. Marys, and Stone Mountain. The Bureau's medical department also opened hospitals with the idea of eventually turning them over to state and local authorities. The Bureau maintained hospitals at Atlanta, Augusta, Columbus, Macon, and Savannah. At the height of its medical operations (1866–67), however, the agency employed just 13 physicians. Nonetheless, with its limited and over burdened medical staff, the Bureau treated more than 5,000 freedmen for various aliments and vaccinated some 20,000 freedmen and refugees against smallpox from September 1, 1865, through September 20, 1866. By September 1867, the number of freedmen treated by Bureau nearly tripled. At the end of June 1868, close to 17,000 freed men, women, and children received treatment. Despite the Bureau's efforts to treat the weak, the sick, and infirm, the mortality rate among freedmen remained high. By late 1868, most of the Bureau's medical activities ceased, and care for the destitute was turned over to local authorities.[4]

In Georgia, as in other states under the Bureau's jurisdiction, the regulation of written labor contracts between planters and freedmen was of paramount concern. General Tillson's order of October 3, 1865 (Circular Number 2), which restricted the issuing of rations only to those in need, also instructed his subordinates to "make immediate and vigorous efforts" to secure work for unemployed freedmen "where fair compensation and kind treatment will be secured to them." Upon arrival at his post in early September 1865, Tillson found the labor system in Georgia in disarray. Able-bodied freedmen were being paid from $2 to $7 per month. Many were of the notion that the Federal Government was planning to distribute land to them at Christmas or New Year's, and thus large numbers of freedmen were refusing to sign labor contracts. Planters, on the other hand, were convinced that the Bureau was the "champion" of the freedmen and totally insensitive to their concerns about freedmen and their unwillingness to labor, and were thus making little effort to prepare for the planting season.[5]

On December 22, 1865, in an effort to remove "false and mistaken impressions" held by the both planters and freedmen, Tillson issued wage guidelines that both parties were expected to follow. Under the new rules, freedmen had the right to choose their own employers, but those freedmen who refused to sign contracts after January 10, 1866, "where employers offer good wages and kind treatment," had to accept contracts that the Bureau made for them. In upper and middle Georgia, where the land was poor and unsuited for raising large quantities of corps, Tillson instructed his officers to secure contracts paying men $12–$13 per month, and $8–$10 dollars per month for women. Freedmen were to provide for their own clothing and medicines. In other parts of the state and along the coast and south-western Georgia, where "good crops" could be raised, men were to be paid $15 per month, including board and lodging, and women $10 per month. In areas where planters preferred to pay a share of the crop, the order required payment of "from one-third the gross to one half the net proceeds."[6]

Realizing that not all planters would comply with his new wage guidelines, Tillson instructed his subordinates to call on the military to enforce his orders whenever necessary. He was aware in spite of his orders, many of the contracts being signed, even some approved by his own agents, were substandard and not in compliance with his wage schedule. He made clear to both his agents and the planters that such contracts would not be recognized. To emphasize the importance of and his commitment to fair contracts and compensation for freedmen, Tillson offered transportation to freedmen to such areas as southwest Georgia and the Mississippi Valley where wages were higher. In a November 1866 report to Commissioner Howard, Tillson indicated that he had issued 381orders for transportation for some 2,947 men and 1,013 children.[7]

Safeguarding rights and securing justice for freedmen was a major area of concern for the Freedmen's Bureau. Following the Civil War, several Southern states enacted a series of laws commonly known as "black codes," which restricted the rights and legal status of freedmen. Freedmen were often given harsh sentences for petty crimes and in some instances were unable to get their cases heard in state courts. In a circular issued by Commissioner Howard on May 30, 1865 (Circular Number 5), Assistant Commissioners were directed to "adjudicate, either themselves or through officers of their appointment, all difficulties arising between negroes themselves, or between negroes and whites or Indians." In response to Howard's circular, General Tillson issued an order on November 15, 1865 (Circular Number 4), instructing his officers to hear and make determinations in cases involving freedmen in which the disputed sum did not exceed $50, or the punishment did not exceed $50 or 30 days' imprisonment. Agents were also told that they could "try offences committed by or against freedmen, provided the sentence imposed does not exceed one hundred and fifty dollars or imprisonment for at hard labor for sixty days." Tillson further ordered that "It is preferred that all cases of any importance . . . whenever under the laws there of [the State of Georgia], or by agreement of the parties . . . [where] the testimony of Freedmen can be admitted . . . the Agent will turn them over to the civil authorities for trial." To carry out Tillson's orders, agents were to establish three-member tribunals (known as freedmen's courts) consisting of a Bureau official and two citizens, one chosen by each party involved in the case.[8]

However, when the Georgia State Legislature passed an act conferring civil rights on "persons of color," approved March 17, 1866, Tillson advised his officers on April 6 (Circular Number 4) that they were no longer required to comply with Commissioner Howard's orders of May 30, 1865. While Tillson told his agents that they were to continue to follow instructions issued by him on November 6, 1865 (Circular Number 4), "all cases exceeding their jurisdiction, unless otherwise specially directed by the Department Commander, [were to] be turned over to the civil authorities of the State for adjudication." Despite the Bureau's efforts to secure justice and civil rights for freedmen in Georgia, blacks continued to complain to the agency about some of the "most fiendish and diabolical outrages" suffered by them at the hands of gangs known as "Regulators," "Jayhawkers," and the "Black-horse cavalry." Perpetrators of crimes against freedmen were often not apprehended or prosecuted by civil authorities. At various times, because of increased hostilities toward freedmen and the failure of civil authorities to take action in their cases, Bureau officials in Georgia were compelled to reassert their authority.[9]

Bureau educational activity began in Georgia in October 1865, when G. L. Eberhart was appointed as superintendent of schools (later education). In August 1867, Edward A. Ware succeeded Eberhart. In January 1869, Assistant Commissioner Maj. John R. Lewis assumed the duties of superintendent of education. Lewis served in both capacities until May 1869, when the office of Assistant Commissioner was discontinued, and remained as superintendent education until May 1870. The records of the two offices were not combined. Ware, who had been acting as assistant superintendent, remained in Georgia as acting superintendent until August 1870, when all Bureau officers except the claims agents were withdrawn from the state.

Congress's failure to provide an appropriation for the Freedmen's Bureau during it first year of operation, impacted significantly on the agency's ability to provide adequate assistance for freedmen education. With limited financial resources, the Bureau provided help when it could, and worked vigorously to encourage freedmen and Northern benevolent societies to taken on the primary responsibility for providing support for black schools. G. L. Eberhart and his successors were of the opinion that "colored people who are unwilling to help educate their children do not deserve to have schools." To encourage freedmen to participate in this self-support effort, Eberhart urged them to establish educational associations. With assistance from local Bureau agents, educational associations were established in the subdistricts of Thomasville, Bainbridge, Albany, Georgetown, Cuthbert, and Americus. In early 1866, the "pay your own way" policy led to the founding of the Georgia Educational Association (initially organized as the Georgia Equal Rights Association). The Educational Association worked closely with the Bureau and Northern aid societies and became the model "to encourage the people [freedmen] to organized effort in supporting their own schools & managing their own affairs." By the end of 1866, freedmen owned 57 schoolhouses and provided support for 96 of the 127 schools in the state. By the spring of 1867, freedmen contributions sustained some 104 schools and teachers and more than 3,000 students. During the same period, the Bureau maintained some 44 schools and 50 teachers and close to 3,100 pupils. Northern aid societies provided support for 84 schools, 78 teachers, and over 7,000 students. Freedmen also defrayed the expenses for 45 schools under the control of the Bureau and the aid societies.[10]

With the passage of the Army Appropriations Act on July 13, 1866 (14 Stat. 90), the Bureau received its first appropriation and was able to provide greater assistance in its effort to support freedmen education. In addition to providing some $21,000 for state superintendents' salaries, the Act made available $500,000 more for the rent and repair of school buildings. In the same month, Congress overrode President Andrew Johnson's veto and extended the life of the Bureau for 2 years. In this new legislation (14 Stat. 173), the Bureau was allowed to "seize, hold, use, lease, or sell" Confederate property for the purpose of educating freedmen. The act also required the Bureau to work closely with benevolent groups and to lease buildings to those associations that supplied teachers. By early July 1869, the Bureau had expended nearly $105,000 for the construction and repair of school buildings that provided accommodations for 4,690 students. The Bureau spent an additional $10,471 for the repair of buildings that provided part-time space for more than 3,500 pupils. By the time the Bureau withdrew from Georgia in 1870, the agency had contributed funds for the building of some 50 schools in the state.[11]

RECORDS DESCRIPTION

These records consist of volumes and unbound records. The volumes reproduced in this microfilm publication were originally arranged by type of record and thereunder by volume number. No numbers were assigned to series consisting of single volumes. Years later, all volumes were arbitrarily assigned numbers by the Adjutant General's Office (AGO) of the War Department after the records came into its custody. In this microfilm publication, AGO numbers are shown in parentheses to aid in identifying the volumes. The National Archives assigned the volume numbers that are not in parentheses. In some volumes, particularly in indexes and alphabetical headings of registers, there are blank numbered pages that have not been filmed.

The volumes consist of letters and endorsements sent and received, press copies of letters sent, registers of letters received, letters and orders received, special orders and circulars issued, registers of complaints, and monthly reports forwarded to the Assistant Commissioner. The unbound documents consist of letters and orders received, unregistered letters and narrative reports received, special orders and circulars issued, general orders and circulars received, monthly reports, and records relating to complaints, labor contracts, patients, and court papers.

LIST OF BOOK RECORDS OF OFFICERS

The single-volume list of book records of officers in Georgia (no date) is arranged by office, with records of the Assistant Commissioner first, followed alphabetically by locations of the subdistrict offices. Included in the list of book records are the type of record in each book or volume, the dates of the volume, and the volume number. Throughout this introductory material and in the Table of Contents, the AGO volume number appears in parentheses in the series descriptions of the records.

RELATED RECORDS

In the same record group, RG 105, and related to records of the Bureau's field offices for Georgia, are those of the Bureau headquarters in Washington, DC, and previously microfilmed records of the Assistant Commissioner and the superintendent of education for Georgia and South Carolina. These record series are available in the following National Archives microfilm publications:

M742, Selected Series of Records Issued by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1872

M752, Registers and Letters Received by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1872

M803, Records of the Education Division of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1871

M798, Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1869

M799, Records of the Superintendent of Education for the State of Georgia, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1870

M869, Records of the Assistant Commissioner for the State of South Carolina, Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, 1865–1870

Records in other record groups supplement those of the Assistant Commissioner. In Records of United States Army Continental Commands, 1821–1920, Record Group (RG) 393, are records of the military district of Georgia. Records relating to employment and welfare of freedmen and abandoned property before the establishment of the Bureau are among Records of Civil War Special Agencies of the Treasury Department, RG 366. The records of the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company, 1865–1874, in Records of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, RG 101, contain information relating to former slaves who maintained accounts with the bank branches in Georgia.

There have been numerous books, articles, and dissertations published about the Freedmen's Bureau and its operations. For Georgia, see Paul A. Cimbala, Under the Guardianship of the Nation: The Freedmen's Bureau and the Reconstruction of Georgia, 1865–1870 (Athens, GA: 1997). For general background, see Paul S. Pierce, The Freedmen's Bureau, A Chapter in the History of Reconstruction (Iowa City, IA: 1904); George R. Bentley, A History of the Freedmen's Bureau (Philadelphia, PA: 1955); and Paul A. Cimbala and Randall M. Miller, eds., The Freedmen's Bureau and Reconstruction: Reconsiderations (New York: 1999), especially pages 93–118.

Several books written about Commissioner Oliver Otis Howard include O. O. Howard, Autobiography of Oliver Otis Howard (New York, NY: 1907); John Alcott Carpenter, Sword and Olive Branch: Oliver Otis Howard (Pittsburgh, PA: 1964); and William S. McFeely, Yankee Stepfather: O. O. Howard and the Freedmen (New Haven, CT: 1968).

Captain

I return through you a communication of Lieut Buffum acquainting me of Invoices and receipt of Stores purporting to have been drawn by you. No requisitions are received from you consequently no instructions given for your supply. Your requisitions should have been forwarded before the first of November. Forage can be furnished you for the horse in your possession by the Post Qr. Mr. on your requisition properly approved. I have been in the habit of having them approved by Genl Tillson.

All other supplies except an Officers Allowances & Fuel and Stationary have to be furnished by the Bureau.

You will therefor purchase wood sufficient to carry what Lieut Buffum has dispatched you for the hospital

December 18 6

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 12th inst enclosing Special Order No 8. authorizing purchase of Wood not to exceed fifty Cords.

I presume the order was based upon the Requisition I made in October and which was intended to cover the requirement of fuel only for that month. Hearing nothing in relation to that Requisition none was forwarded for November or December. and I availed myself of the only source I had, that of purchasing under the sanction of the Asst. Commissioner.

In October I purchased thirty four (34) Cords of Wood. in November Eighty seven (87) Cords of Wood and twelve (12) tons of Coal. and thus far in this month about Ninety (90) Cords of Wood and fifteen tons of Coal.

You will perceive therefore that the order does not cover the purchases as I could wish.

The consumption of fuel in the hospitals is large owing to the fact that most of the buildings are very open and consequently difficult to keep warm. In addition, we have a steamer under charter this month which we supply with fuel.

I will forward the reports required by your order as soon as I can obtain the necessary data from the principal points where fuel is required

In compliance with Special Orders No. 8 from your Office dated Dec. 12. 1866 I have the honor to report that the supply of Fuel required for the use of this Bureau in the State of Georgia for six months Commencing January 1. 1867. will amount to about six hundred and twenty four (624) Cords of Wood. Distributed as follows

Freedmens Hospitals at Savannah 66 Cords
" " " Macon 162 "
" " " Atlanta 179 "
" " " Augusta 100 "
" " " Columbus 45 "
" " " Eighteen Offices in various portions of State 72 "

The cause of the large supply needed for Hospitals is owing to the open and exposed condition of the buildings used for that purpose and the consequent difficulty of keeping them comfortable. As Coal is used principally at Savannah, there will be a consequent reduction in the amount of Wood required at that place.

The Wood can be purchased delivered at Savannah for $8.00, at Macon for $6.50 at Atlanta for $5.00, at Columbus for $6.00 and at Augusta for $7.00, per Cord. The Coal at Savannah will average about $11.00 per ton.

These rates do not vary materially from the Contract price paid by the Qr. Mr. Dept. except at Macon where we get it $1.00 per Cord less than the Qr. Mr. Dept. I can make no arrangement with the Officers of the Qr. Mr. Dept, unless they receive orders to supply it. Savannah, Macon, Atlanta and Augusta are the only places where they could procure it. There being no troops at the other points where we require fuel. I can supply the Bureau more economically, more conveniently, with less delay, besides avoiding confusion, by purchasing such months at the different points where required, without reference to the Qr. Mr. Dept. And would recommend that I be allowed so to do.

I have the honor to report that the Freedmen's Hospital at Macon Ga is situated in one of the most unhealthy localities in that vicinity. That the buildings in use (formerly Confederate property and lately sold by this Bureau with the privelege of retaining them for use of a hospital so long as they may be required) are very small and open requiring a large amount of fuel to keep them Comfortable. They are every way unsuitable for the purpose required.

We have in our hands at Macon a number of frame buildings, situated on land which has been restored to the owners, orginally put up by the Confederate Govt. and until quite lately in use as Quarters for the troops at that Post. There can be moved and erected for a hospital at an estimated expense of $2500. The City of Macon offers to furnish the land required for the purpose.

I would recommend that authority be granted me to have these buildings removed and fitted up for a hospital

I have the honor to enquire if I am authorized to issue fuel and Stationery on requisitions approved by the Assistant Commissioner to duly appointed Civilian Agents under salary, acting in the same Capacity as Sub Asst. Commissioners, and to Acting assistant Surgeons in Charge of Freedmens Hospitals, also whether I can transfer to them "Stores pertaining to Bureau R. F. & A. L." "Quartermasters Stores" and "Clothing Camp and Garrison Equipage" taking their receipt the same as from Army Officers?

I make these inquiries for the reason that the number of Army Officers on duty in the Bureau in this State is gradually decreasing and their places being filled by Civilians who require to be supplied, and it will place me in a dangerous position if I am obliged to be responsible for property to never-extent scattered in various portions of the State. I now bear upon my papers a small quantity in this situation.

Under Special Orders No 11. dated December 28th 1866 from your Office. I am limited in the purchase of fuel to one hundred & four (104) Cords of Wood per month. My report to you of the quantity required, six hundred & twenty four (624) Cords, which I now find, owing to erroneous report received will fall short of the requisite needs by about one hundred (100) Cords, nos for six months commencing January 1. 1867. and not. perhaps as you intended from November 1. 1866.

I estimated for the months of May and June. one half (½) a Cord per fire for Hospitals based on "Revised Army Regulations" which allowance, although indispensible, does not appear in the "Officers Manual Bureau A. I. & A. L" since received.

You will perceive therefore that one hundred & four (104) Cords although the average monthly quantity on my report for six months will not be sufficient in the months of January, February, March and April.

My report of fuel forwarded ✪ forwarded to day will show you more clearly how the matter stands

I have the honor to forward herewith a report of buildings and rooms hired in this State for use of the Bureau R. F. & L. giving amount of rent &c. in order that action can be taken under the requirements of Circular No. 6 War Department Bureau R. F. & L. Office Chief Q. M. Genl. dated Washington D. C. December 21st 1865.

In my opinion it will be impossible to carry out the provisions of this Circular in this State without interfering seriously with the operations of the Bureau.

Houses and buildings suitable for the use of the Bureau, are scarce and with difficulty procured, and only then upon a rental being agreed upon before possession is given. Owners would not lease, subject to a decision of a Board of Officers, neither would those of whom we are now renting submit to a reduction of rent, in case a Board should decide it was too high, and I know of no method to compel them to in time of peace. In some places it would cost the Government to assemble a Board of Officers merely as

as much as the yearly rental of the buildings.

Dear Sir.

Authority having been received to make the change of Hospital at Macon recommended by me. You can immediately commence the work. As the number of buildings at our Hospital there are sufficient. It will be well to have it put up in good shape. on such a plan as the Surgeon in charge and yourself may devise best for the purpose.

The labor you can hire by the day with some competent builder to superviss it. As these labors and expenses appear upon my reports the items will be forwarded to me at the end of the month. so that proper receipt bills can be passed up for their payment.

Any materials required you will purchase, forwarding bills to me for settlement.

The hauling you can make an agreement for at a certain price per load, or at a price per day.

Manual

March 5th

Sir,

I have lately received the Quartermaster's Department's instructions to give the direction of the Articles of Clothing to be made for the accompanying Returns. The Articles to be issued as Slops pertaining to Infantry Companies, have been made of the Cloth & Trimmings, for which Clothing is annually issued. The Cloth which you have received for each Company is supposed on the Form No 12 under the head "Appropriation" you will state the Articles made from the Cloth; this Form again is supposed to contain Cloth for another Form, and the Articles of Clothing manufactured. The different Articles supposed to be made on Form 38, you will observe by each one; the Form is a sub division of the Form No 12. You enter the number of Articles issued in each will be supposed. These different Articles, which are all made up duplicate are entered on the returns. You retain one on file with, with a copy of your returns for your own file. These instructions with those contained in the Pamphlet, I think, make you to account for the

General,

I desire information as how & will Agents of the Bureau acting under appointment of the Commissioner should be reported. So far they have in this State been reported by the Asst. Commissioner on his "No. 2" as employed by him, and entered on the consolidated Report in the same way. In addition, I have been endorsing the payments on their orders assigning them to duty. It seems to me they should first be entered on the "No. 2" of the Asst. Commissr. as they simply report to, and are assigned to duty by him, and are employed by the Commissioner.

Enclosed herewith, you will find your Abstract for 4 per Months of January & February made out anew. You will please observe the manner in which they are made up, and govern yourself accordingly in future. You will notice that the "date of contract" remains unchanged, and must not be altered in any manner. In the column of "time and amount due and remaining unpaid" you enter the time and amount for which rent is due. For instance, should there be no payment of rent until subsequent to March 1st there will be January, February & March rents due and your entry in above column would be "January 1 March 31st 1865". If however payment of the rent now due, be made prior to the termination of March your entry will then be "March 1 March 31st" These Abstracts should be rendered monthly and forwarded to the Surgeon-in-Chief on the 1st day of every month for approval. Return enclosures signed as soon as practicable.

Ilion March 4th

Colonel

I have the honor to report that on examination about the City of Ilion is a large amount of property formerly held and owned by the so called Empire Arms Co. consisting of about two thousand acres of land, three or four large buildings and about fifty frame buildings and sheds, a portion of which is known as the Remington Gun Factory, the Laboratory, the Armory, the Machine Shop & the Rifle and Carbine Factory of Col. E. H. Ordnance Department, Commanding U. S. Armory Springfield, Mass. The property of the Empire Arms Co. is now in the hands of the United States Marshal for the Northern District of New York and is now in charge of the U. S. Marshal

In my opinion this property should be taken possession of under the provisions of Section 12. of the Act of Congress approved July 17th 1862 entitled "An Act to suppress Insurrection, to punish Treason and Rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of Rebels, and for other purposes" and that a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen and refugees be established in the City of Ilion for Whereupon Resolved.

That the Clerk of this Court be directed to issue a Writ of Venditioni Exponas directed to the Sheriff of this County commanding him that of the goods and chattels of the said Defendant he cause to be made the money which the said Defendant is condemned to pay to the said Plaintiff.

Macon March 25th

Colonel,

I have the honor to report that in and near the city of Macon is a large amount of property formerly held and owned by the so called Confederate States consisting of about (240) two hundred and forty acres of land, three or four large brick buildings and about fifty (50) frame buildings and rough shanties, a portion of which is known as the New Laboratory, Old Laboratory, New Armory, Old Armory Magazine City Hospital &c. It is held and carried on the papers of Lt. Col. L. H. Haydon Ordnance Department, Commanding Ordnance at Augusta, Ga. as Ordnance Property. A portion of it has been libelled by the United States District Court of Georgia and is now offered for sale by the U.S. Marshal.

In my opinion this property clearly comes under the provisions of Section 12. of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to continue in force and to amend An Act to establish a Bureau for the relief of Freedmen & Refugees and for other purposes" passed July 16th 1866 and ought to be in possession of this Bureau for educational purposes.

I have also to report that the Arsenal Mounds and about three hundred and fifty (350) acres of land at Augusta, Ga. are held in same manner and by the de office and be conducted under the same provisions of the Act of Congress referred to I would respectfully recommend that some action be taken, to settle the question as to what Depot must should locate and conduct the business.

I am directed to erect a building in the College yard for a hospital 60 by twenty feet. I think the estimate furnished by Mr Fowler and forwarded by you is altogether too large for the work.

You will please however commence the work. You will purchase the material superintending the bills to me for settlement and hire the labor with some competent man to superintend the work. by the day forwarding me on a sheet of paper the time and amount which are to be reported on my rolls. as that receipt bills can be made up to pay them on through you.

You will observe as much economy as possible.

May 30th

General

I have the honor to report that the meat furnished on Contract of H. F. Nettleton amounting to 142926 pounds was inspected by me and accepted, though very reluctantly, and only on account of the dispatch received from you. for the reason that the most of it was shoulders which are not Economical for issue.

The small amount of Cumberland middlings was issued this was issued at 1/2 per pound but afterwards put in at 14½ cts the same as the shoulders.

This meat all comes under the Contract of Mr Nettleton dated Apl 25. (none having been received on the first dated April 10th and I presume none will be.

It is necessary that some arrangement be made for the balance of supply about 130000 pounds.

I think it much better to purchase here than on contract from the north. for the reason that we can regulate the quantity required. procuring it as needed and get such meat as is suitable for issue. I can make arrangements here for the necessary supply of beef - sides — at from fifteen to seventeen cents according to kind. delivered here which taking the necessary expenses into consideration I consider cheaper than to purchase north and ship here.

At the present season there is much danger of injury to meat if kept in hot warehouses. or on the roads any length of time. and it would be better to procure it here as we require it. I fear that before we have now on hand will injure before it can be distributed as it is lightly salted.

I have purchased about 15000 bushels of Corn at $1.50/100 in Savannah and $1 61/100 + $1 62/100. here. This with the 20000 bushels to come from R. B. Bush & Co New York on Central (a copy of which I receive to day) I think will be sufficient to supply the necessities of this State.

Should it be deemed advisable for me to purchase the bacon here please advise me by telegraph on receipt of this

Yours of the 10th inst, in reference to not being able to furnish the Applicants Bills of Lading of Stores forwarded by Maj. Woodbash on account of the Rail Road Company refusing to deliver it is received. I cannot understand Why the Rail Road Company should do so, if the Stores were Shipped on proper Bills of Lading, as they have been in the habit of transporting Stores for the Government and must know that their accounts can not be audited in Washington before being paid. You will please ascertain how the Bills are made, and if correct, Why the reason is given why the Agent refuses to deliver all the Stores, that proper action can be taken.

June 21.

Sir

I have of my own motion thought proper again to trouble the Board. These depositions are taken before a Court of Enquiry held on board the Ship under my command and entitled and my reasons for so doing are that the Cattle on shore are not sufficient for the Ships use, & will be soon consumed & compel me to go to sea
for more provisions.
My reasons for this are these. It is necessary that all those depositions should be rendered necessarily and immediately, the Soldiers displaced by some false hopes of great numbers
& the whole might be lost. Therefore I will first direct the Surgeon to proceed
